Section

(1) The electors of Collier County, Florida, are granted power to adopt, revise, and amend from time to time a charter of self government for Collier County, Florida, under which the Board of County Commissioners of Collier County shall be the governing body. Such charter:

(a) May fix the boundaries of each county commission district, provide a method for changing them from time to time, and fix terms and compensation of the commissioners.

(b) May grant power and authority to the Board of County Commissioners of Collier County to adopt ordinances relating to the affairs, property and government of Collier County and provide methods of enforcement and suitable fines and other penalties for the violation thereof; to levy and collect such taxes as may be authorized by general law and no other taxes, and to do everything necessary to carry on a county government in Collier County. No ordinance shall conflict with any general, local or special law.

(c) Shall provide a method for the recall of any commissioner and a method for initiative and referendum, including the initiation of and referendum on ordinances and the amendment or revision of the charter, provided, however, that the power of the Governor and Senate relating to the suspension and removal of officers provided for in this Constitution shall not be impaired, but shall extend to all officers provided for in said charter.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, such Charter shall specify the powers reserved to the electors, including powers to approve or disapprove actions of the Board of County Commissioners before such actions become effective.

(e) Such charter shall not grant to the County Commissioners any jurisdiction or authority over any city or incorporated town in Collier County, other than provided by general laws.

(2) This self-government Charter shall be prepared by a Charter Board composed of not less than 9, nor more than 15 members appointed by the Governor and shall be presented to the electors of Collier County for ratification or rejection in the manner provided by the Legislature. The Governor may, from time to time, as he deems necessary, replace or change members of such Board. Such Charter, once adopted by the electors, may be amended only by the electors of Collier County and this Charter shall provide a method for submitting future charter revisions and amendments to the electors of Collier County.

(3) The County Commission of Collier County shall continue to receive its pro rata share of all revenues payable by the state from whatever source to the several counties and the municipalities in Collier County shall continue to receive their pro rata share of all revenues payable by the state from whatever source to the municipalities of Florida; provided, however, the Commission or the municipalities shall reimburse the State Comptroller for extra expense, if any, incurred in the keeping of records as a result of the charter.

(4) Nothing in this section shall limit or restrict the power of the Legislature to enact general, local or special laws which shall relate to Collier County and any other one or more counties in the state or to any municipality in Collier County and any other one or more municipalities of the state, and the charter provided for herein shall not conflict with any provision of this Constitution nor of any applicable general, local or special laws now applying to Collier County and any other one or more counties of the state except as expressly authorized in this section nor shall any ordinance enacted in pursuance to said charter conflict with this Constitution or any such applicable general, local or special law except as expressly authorized herein, nor shall the charter of any municipality in Collier County conflict with this Constitution or any such applicable general, local or special law except as expressly authorized herein.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict the power of the Legislature to enact general, local or special laws which shall relate to Collier County and any other one or more counties of the state or to any municipality in Collier County and any other one or more municipalities of the state relating to county or municipal affairs and all such general, local or special laws shall apply to Collier County and to all municipalities therein to the same extent as if this section had not been adopted and such general, local or special laws shall supersede any part or portion of the charter of self-government provided for herein in conflict therewith and shall supersede any provision of any ordinance enacted pursuant to said charter and in conflict therewith, and shall supersede any provision of any charter of any municipality in Collier County in conflict therewith.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict the power and jurisdiction of the Railroad and Public Utilities Commission or of any other state agency, bureau or commission now or hereafter provided for in this Constitution or by general law and said state agencies, bureaus and commissions shall have the same powers in Collier County as shall be conferred upon them in regard to other counties.

(7) If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or provisions of this section is held invalid as violative of the provisions of Section 1, Article XVII of this Constitution the remainder of this section shall not be affected by such invalidity.

(8) It is declared to be the intent of the Legislature and of the electors of the state to provide by this section self-government for the people of Collier County in local affairs and this section shall be liberally construed to carry out such purpose, and it is further declared to be the intent of the Legislature and of the electors of the state that the provisions of this Constitution and general laws which shall relate to Collier County and any other one or more counties of the state or to any municipality in Collier County and any other one or more municipalities of the state enacted pursuant thereto by the Legislature shall be the supreme law in Collier County, except as expressly provided herein and this section shall be strictly construed to maintain such supremacy of this Constitution and of the Legislature in the enactment of general, local or special laws pursuant to this Constitution.

Conference Committee Amendment No. 1—

Strike out all after the title and insert in lieu thereof the following:

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Legislature to foster and promote temperance in the consumption of spirituous liquors, and further to promote respect for and obedience to the law, and the Legislature finds that such policy is necessary for the protection of the health, welfare, safety and morals of the people of the state, and

WHEREAS, The Legislature further finds that such policy can be accomplished best by the strict regulation and control of the sale of spirituous liquors, especially at the consumer or retail level, and

WHEREAS, Such regulation and control cannot be exercised effectively unless the beverage department of the state is given some authority through price stabilization to prevent the evils that result from "price wars" and the excessive cutting of retail prices of spirituous liquors, and

WHEREAS, Such evils are well known to be intemperance, which breeds disobedience of and disrespect for the law and encourages immorality and crime, all of which are detrimental to the health, welfare, safety and morals of the people of the state; and the Legislature hereby determines that this remedial act is necessary for the best public interest, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

Section 1. No distributor of spirituous liquors, whether licensed under the laws of this state or not, shall sell or offer for sale, or move or cause to be moved within this state, or into this state from any other state any spirituous liquors, unless and until a list or schedule of minimum consumer retail prices for each registered brand of such spirituous liquor shall have been filed by the distributor with the director of the beverage department of this state. For the purpose of this Act, the term "spirituous liquors" is defined as any liquor, as defined under the beverage law, containing more than fourteen per cent of alcohol by weight.

Section 2. The list or schedule of minimum consumer retail prices required to be filed with the director shall be filed by brand and price within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this act. Thereafter, but not oftener than once every ninety (90) days, any distributor's minimum consumer retail price schedule may be changed, providing the distributor files such change with the director by the 20th day of the month, with such change becoming effective on the first day of the following month.

Section 3. The director shall have the authority and duty to adopt by rule or regulation, promulgated for and in any county or counties, all such minimum consumer retail price lists or schedules, and all changes filed thereto by the distributors, whenever the director shall determine that such adoption is appropriate or necessary to prevent the evils occasioned by "price wars" or the excessive cutting of retail prices of spirituous liquors. Such rule or regulation shall set the effective date thereof, and shall remain in effect until rescinded by the director.

Section 4. Upon the adoption and promulgation of such rule or regulation, the director shall require each distributor to furnish to each vendor served by such distributor, either by mail or by publication in a recognized trade journal of general circulation to licensed vendors throughout the state, an exact copy of the then current list or schedule of minimum consumer retail prices filed by such distributor with the director and such subsequent changes as may be made.

Section 5. On and after the effective date fixed in any rule or regulation adopting minimum consumer retail price lists or schedules, in any county or counties of the state, no retailer in any such county or counties shall sell or advertise for sale, directly or indirectly, any spirituous liquors at a package price less than the package price printed in the currently effective list or schedule of minimum consumer retail prices furnished to such retailer by the distributor, or at a price less than ten per cent below such package price when sold in case lots of not less than 2.4 gallons per case lot.

Section 6. This act shall become a part of the beverage laws of the state, and any rules or regulations made or adopted by the director for the enforcement hereof shall have the same force and effect as rules and regulations made or adopted under existing law.

Section 7. Notwithstanding the taxation of alcoholic beverages when sold in package for consumption off the premises of the licensee, provided by section 212.08(5), Florida Statutes, there is hereby levied and imposed a "special tax" at the rate of three per cent upon the sale at retail in this state of all spirituous liquors as defined in this Act, when sold in package for consumption off the premises of the licensee, and such tax shall be collected, reported and remitted in the same manner and under the same law and regulations in all other respects applicable to the sales and use tax of this state.

Section 8. It is declared to be the legislative intent that, if any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or provision of this Act is held invalid, the remainder of the act shall not be affected.

Section 9. This Act shall take effect July 1, 1959.

Conference Committee Amendment No. 2—

Strike out the title, following the words "A bill to be entitled," and insert the following in lieu thereof: An Act relating to the sale of spirituous liquors; requiring distributors to file schedules of minimum consumer retail prices with the director of the beverage department; empowering the director to adopt such schedules as rules or regulations in any county or counties of the state when appropriate or necessary to prevent the evils of "price wars" or excessive cutting of retail prices of spirituous liquors; levying and providing for the collection of a special tax on the sale at retail of spirituous liquors sold in package for consumption off premises; providing that such tax be severable from the remainder of this Act; providing for the enforcement of this Act and setting the effective date.

WHEREAS, the general public, private enterprise and the press are justifiably alarmed by manifested indications in increasing instances that administrative officers of various Federal agencies are wittingly or unwittingly embellishing the statutory objectives and responsibilities of such agencies with their personal and subjective judgment in matters pertaining to the making of policy, procedures and regulations, and

WHEREAS, it is clear that the rights and prerogatives reserved to the sovereign states and to the people are endangered by such instances of malfeasance and misfeasance, and

WHEREAS, it is only just that private citizens should not be compelled or find it necessary to remain constantly vigilant to detect such instances of malfeasance or misfeasance, nor forced, in protecting their own welfare, to intimidate or risk intimidation of their private interests in challenging the propriety of such improper actions by administrative officers of Federal agencies, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the Congress of the United States be memorialized and urged to take such action as may be necessary, now and at all times, including the enactment of laws, to effectively impress upon the administrative officers of all Federal agencies that the authority delegated to them by the Congress to effectuate the provisions of Federal statutes does not include the power or privilege to prescribe policies, procedures, regulations or decrees that are inconsistent with the law, or that are based upon subjective judgment, personal philosophy, or the arbitrary interpretation of, assumption of, or speculation upon the actual intent of Congress in its acts.

Which amendments read as follows:

Amendment No. 1—

Strike out Sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. For the purpose of this section, a "tract" is defined as a contiguous area of land not exceeding three hundred twenty (320) acres in size.

Section 2. No lease on oil, gas or other minerals shall be enforceable after ten (10) years from the date thereof unless the owner of said lease is, at the end of said ten-year (10-yr.) period, actively engaged in extracting oil, gas or other minerals from lands affected thereby; provided, that if, during said ten-year (10-yr.) period, the owner of said lease shall have commercially extracted or made a bona fide effort to commercially extract oil, gas or other minerals thereunder from a tract, or if the owner or owners of all of the surface rights shall have acknowledged such lease by written and recorded instrument, then said ten-year (10-yr.) period shall be terminated and a subsequent period of ten (10) years shall commence to run as to that tract only after abandonment of said activities or from the date of recordation of said acknowledgment by the owner of the surface right; provided further, that this act shall not apply to any oil, gas or other minerals held by the United States, the state of Florida, or any of their agencies. The limitation provisions of this section will become operative to render such leases unenforceable one (1) year from the effective date of this act.

(B) This section is intended to and does affect certain presently existing leases; however, any minor or other person under legal disability, whose rights are affected hereby, may, through a proper representative appointed under the laws and rules of procedure of this state, take what action he may deem necessary to protect those leases within a period of one (1) year from the effective date of this act.

Section 4. (A) Whenever any lease on oil, gas or other minerals shall be barred by reason of the period of limitation set forth herein, the owner or claimant of said lease shall within thirty (30) days after written demand on the part of the owner of any part of the surface lands affected thereby, furnish said surface owner with an instrument duly executed and acknowledged, directing the cancellation of such lease from the public records.

(B) If any such owner or claimant of any lease on oil, gas or other minerals shall fail or refuse to execute the instrument directing the cancellation of said lease within said period, he shall be liable to the surface owner for court costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by said surface owner in bringing suit to cancel or quiet title as to such lease and in addition thereto shall be liable to said surface owner for all damages suffered by him because of his inability to sell or otherwise deal with said land by reason of the failure or refusal to provide such instrument; provided, however, that this section shall not apply where a bona fide dispute exists as to whether such lease has been barred.

Section 5. No lease on oil, gas or other minerals shall become unenforceable or be canceled by this act until just compensation by due process of law has been awarded to the holder thereof in compliance with the constitution and laws of the State of Florida.
